

August Club Event: Beat the Heat

By Martin Gaynor

We really beat the heat this year – the threat of rain kept most of us inside the air-conditioned house. There were 12 here and we enjoyed good food, drink, and conversation. Lynn distributed nautical related snacks, such as clam chowder, crab chowder, oyster crackers, Cape Cod chips, dried seaweed, etc. and asked the recipients to tell a story about what effect that item had in their life. We heard some great stories. Some were funny. I'm pretty sure the truth was stretched in a few places, but it was all fun.
